Blue Hill Troupe, Ltd.

announces its 94th Season:

THE BLUE HILL TROUPE brings high-quality theater performances to New York City audiences while raising money for New York City charities. The Troupe has raised nearly nine million dollars (adjusting for inflation) since 1924.

Hailing from all walks of life and spanning several generations, Troupers donate time and energy to produce two full theatrical productions a year: a Broadway musical or light opera and a Gilbert and Sullivan operetta.

Although we do boast a number of professional theater people in our ranks, most Troupers make a living in other professions. Troupers sing and act, design and build sets, create costumes and props, wire lighting and sound systems, edit and produce the program, sell tickets and usher—in short, perform all the jobs required to put on a first-rate show—in their spare time and for the love of it. The quality of the performances we put on is testimony to the dedication and effort we are capable of as a group.

The Blue Hill Troupe has twice performed in Carnegie Hall with the New York Pops, and has been featured in the Metropolitan Museum of Art concert series. On television, the Troupe has been profiled on CBS Sunday Morning and the MetroArts/Thirteen performance series.

FALL 2017 SHOW

Sandy Wilson's THE BOY FRIEND

Book, Music and Lyrics by Sandy Wilson

Stage Director: Carl Schmehl

Conductor/Music Director: Chris Piro

November 10-18, 2017

Theatre at St. Jean's
(184 E. 76th St.)

The Jazz Age lives on in this light romantic spoof of 1920s musical comedy. Written in the fifties as "a new musical of the twenties," The Boy Friend is still considered the most successful and witty of the send-up musicals, and is filled to the brim with catchy tunes, tongue-in-cheek moments, and cheerful dance numbers. Set against the backdrop of the French Riviera, The Boy Friend tells the story of English heiress, Polly, who is longing for only one thing: a boy friend. Following many misadventures and mistaken identities, love proceeds to find its way charmingly through nearly every member of the cast and bring them all to a happy ending.

SPRING 2018 SHOW

THE YEOMEN OF THE GUARD, OR THE MERRYMAN AND HIS MAID

Music by ARTHUR SULLIVAN

Libretto by WILLIAM S. GILBERT

Stage Director: Tom Ridgely

Conductor/Music Director: John Liepold

March 23-31, 2018

Theatre at St. Jean's
(184 E. 76th St.)

The darkest of the Gilbert and Sullivan operas, "The Yeomen of the Guard, or The Merryman and His Maid" ends with a broken-hearted main character and at least two reluctant engagements, rather than the usual armful of marriages. However, Gilbert's "pointed" satire and punny one-liners abound, there are plenty of topsy-turvy plot complications, and many believe that the score is Sullivan's finest. Indeed, some enjoy Yeomen particularly because of its ever-changing emotional balance of joy and despair, love and sacrifice.

In support of GallopNYC, our 2017-18 Charity Partner

The Blue Hill Troupe is proud to partner with the GallopNYC for our 94th season. GallopNYC is NYC's leading, most multifaceted therapeutic horsemanship program serving hundreds of riders each week – children, adults, and veterans with disabilities – in six locations.

GallopNYC's program uses horseback riding and horse knowledge to develop cognitive, social, and physical skills for each rider. Under the direction of a PATH Intl. certified instructor and supported by trained volunteers, each rider acquires increasingly advanced riding skills. The lessons help riders build physical strength, develop problem-solving skills, increase empathy and improve social skills. Therapeutic riding develops transferable benefits that are vital to helping riders reach their full potential in life.

GallopNYC serves youth with a wide range of disabilities including autism spectrum disorder, cerebral palsy, visual impairment, Down Syndrome, learning disabilities and other physical, cognitive and emotional challenges. The program also serves at-risk and court-involved youth as well as disabled veterans and adults with multiple sclerosis.

Partnering with the Blue Hill Troupe will allow GallopNYC to provide full or partial therapeutic riding fee waivers to youth with disabilities from low- and middle-income families who are currently on a waiting list.

Find out more at our website: www.GallopNYC.org.
